

Illinois Agriculture Historic Preservation Society

Illinois Agriculture Historic Preservation Society is hosting its first Annual Antique Farm Collectors and Memorabilia Fair

Location: Mark of the Quad Cities
Times: Friday June 29th 10 am to 5 pm
Saturday June 30th 8 am to 4 pm

Vendors will be on hand offering antique farm related items and memorabilia for sale. Historical displays of rare and important agriculture artifacts, with a primary focus on John Deere, will be available for viewing, as well as, an appraisal booth for bringing antique farm related items for identification and appraising (small donation fee will apply).

Admission will be $2 per person, children under 12 free. Plenty of free parking available.

Vendor booths for selling or displaying items are still available at reasonable rates, contact Tom McMurren at (815) 970-4897 or curator@illinoisaghistory.com for more information or to reserve your place.

All proceeds go to benefit the Illinois Agriculture Historical Preservation Society, a not-for-profit organization dedicated to the preservation and education of Agriculture and rural history.

www.illinoisaghistory.com

“To Forget History, is to Betray our Past, and to Deny our Future”